TALK WITH BARON HAYASHI MAY NOT BE ABLE TO AGREE

M. WITTE LEAVES ST. PETERS-BURG TODAY.

ONDON, July 18.—Baron Hayashi,  ONDON, July 18.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister here, said to the Associated Press that Russia had appointed good men as peace plen-ipotentiaries. Nevertheless, even M. Witte and Baron Rosen had not inspired Japan with confidence in a favorable outcome of the negotiations.

"We do not know," the minister added, "what powers have been delegated the Japanese minister here, said to the case of the United States against Congressman J. N. Williamson's partner, and Marion R. Biggs, charged with conspiring to defraud the government of public land, had returned no verdict at 10:35 p, m. and were locked up for the night.

ESCAPED BUFFALO WERE BROUGHT BACK

Helena, July 18.—Nearly the entire herd of buffalo in the Yellowstone National park broke through the fence surrounding the park and escaped two days ago only to be finally rounded up by a platoon of United States cavalry from Fort Yellowstone, after hard rid-ing, and returned to their pasturage. The animals' escape has demonstrated to the park authorities that the fence around the park is inadequate.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

New York, July 18.—Berthe Claiche, the French girl indicted for murder in the first degree yesterday by the grand jury for killing Emil Gendron, pleaded not guilty today and was re-manded for trial. The girl says that for six years past Gendron made her lead an immoral life and that she killed him to escape this slavery.
Sympathetic women have retained legal counsel for her during her trial, which will probably be at the fall term.

Moses Ellis Wooster, a member of the Society Editors association, who got up "Fads and Fancies" and also "America's Smart Set." called on Mr. Krotel today and furnished to the criminal authorities a copy of the much talked of agreement between the Town Topics Publishing company and himself. The agreement shows that Wooster engaged to secure subscribers to "Fads and Fancies." all subscription contracts to be in the name of the Town Topics Publishing company; that the company was to secure an aditor and have full supervision of printing and Wooster further told Mr. Krotel that there was no fixed price for subscriptions to the book. He also declared that the subscription of a woman very prominent in society cost her $10,000, and that while the minimum rate was $1,500 some subscribers had paid $3,000 and there as high as $7,000 for their books. This increased the amount obtained for the production of "Fads and Fancies" from $150,000 to more than $200,000.
